

Discovery is just the Beginning

NAS Conference 2017

Day 1: Saturday 18th November 2017

Venue: Portland Building, Portland Street, University of Portsmouth

09.00 - 09.30	Registration & refreshments
09.30 - 09.45	Welcome & opening remarks by Master of Ceremonies, NAS Vice President David Blackman
09.45 - 10.30	Discovery is just the beginning - the origins of archaeology training at the Mary Rose and the NAS , Christopher Dobbs, Mary Rose Trust and NAS Vice President
10.30 – 11.00	When the NAS goes marching in...your life: my learning experience and performance within the NAS programme , José Manuel Matés Luque
11.00 - 11.30	Break
11.30 - 12.00	The Voyage of Discovery with CITIZAN , Alex Bellisario, CITIZAN South-West
12.00 - 12.30	Patrão Lopes, a wreck with multiple beginnings , Jorge Russo, Portuguese Navy Research Centre
12.30 – 13.00	MARELab – NAS Cyprus Underwater Archaeology Fieldschools: Lessons Learned , Andonis Neophytou & Stella Demesticha, University of Cyprus M.A.R.E. Lab
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch
14.00 - 14.10	The 2017 IJNA Open Access Prize Announcement – Miranda Richardson
14.10 – 15.00	Scanning the SS Thistlegorm - The approach, technique, methods and results of using photogrammetry to scan one of the world's most popular dive sites , Simon Brown, Deep 3D
15.00 - 15.30	Appreciating the Heritage You Can't See: Impact and Legacy of the NAS , Amanda Evans, Coastal Environments, Inc.
15.30 – 16.00	Break
16.00 – 16.25	SSEAS of Change: Florida's Program for Sport Diver Engagement in Heritage Preservation , Dr Della Scott-Ireton, University of West Florida.
16.25 – 16.50	SubMap - the Archaeological Investigation of the Submarine Resurgam , Peter Holt, 3H Consulting
16.50 – 17.00	Closing remarks
17.00 - 18.00	NAS 2017 Annual General Meeting (NAS Members Only)

The conference has been supported by: Historic England, Dive Master Insurance, BSAC, Wessex Archaeology, MSDS Marine and The Mary Rose Trust

Discovery is just the Beginning

NAS Conference 2017

Day 2: Sunday 19th November 2017

Venue: Portland Building, Portland Street, University of Portsmouth

09.00 - 09.30	Registration & refreshments
09.30 – 09.40	Welcome & opening remarks by Master of Ceremonies, NAS Vice President David Blackman
09.40 - 10.15	Secrets from the Seabed - The Antikythera Mechanism Shipwreck , Phil Short & Gemma Smith, Dark Water Explorations
10.15 - 10.35	Maritime Archaeology when it's cold, wet & windy – the winter activities of the NAS Members Research Group , Sheilah Openshaw
10.35 - 11.00	Excavating Invincible , Daniel Pascoe, Bournemouth University
11.00 - 11.30	Break
11.30 – 12.00	NAS and Service Learning in Costa Rica: Investigating Slave Ships, Fishing Culture, and Oil Rigs , Dr Lynn Harris, East Carolina University
12.00 - 12.45	#Rooswijk1740 Project , Martijn Manders, Dutch Cultural Heritage Agency
12.45 – 12.50	NAS Education Programme Presentations – Peta Knott, NAS Education Officer
12.50 - 13.00	Keith Muckelroy Award 2017 Announcement – David Parham
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 - 14.30	The winner of the Keith Muckelroy Award 2017
14.30 - 15.00	Warship Hazardous Project - 30 years of avocational custodianship of a protected wreck site , Iain Grant & David Johnston, Warship Hazardous Team
15.00 - 15.30	Break
15.30 – 16.00	Harnessing the power of the masses – using social media for recording , Nick Reed
16.00 - 16.30	Accessing a Protected Wreck – the Holland 5 and Norman's Bay Wreck diver trails , Mark Beattie-Edwards, NAS
16.30 - 17.00	Final remarks and conference raffle