

NAS and SPMA Conference 2015

Day 1 - 21st November 2015

Venue: Portland Building, University of Portsmouth, Portsmouth, PO1 3AH

08.30 DOORS OPEN / TEA & COFFEE

09.00 Opening remarks by Day 1 conference chair Christopher Dobbs, NAS Vice-President

09.10 Revealing wrecks through conservation and material analysis. Angela Middleton and David Dungworth, Historic England

09.45 Portuguese timber supply for Iberian shipbuilding (1580-1640): a case study. Alexandre Monteiro, Instituto de Arqueologia e Paleociências Instituto de História Contemporânea Universidade Nova de Lisboa

10.30 BREAK / TEA & COFFEE

11.00 The Archaeology of Sir John Franklin's HMS Erebus in the Canadian Arctic, Ryan Harris, Parks Canada

11.50 Announcement of the 2015 NAS Training Awards and the NAS Adopt a Wreck Award 2015

12.00 LUNCH / TEA & COFFEE / POSTER PRESENTATIONS IN THE ATRIUM

13.00 NAS 2015 Annual General Meeting

14.00 Announcement of the winner Keith Muckelroy Memorial Award 2015

14.05 Presentation by the winner of the Keith Muckelroy Memorial Award 2015

14.30 Presentation by the winner of the Adopt a Wreck Award 2015

15.30 BREAK / TEA & COFFEE

16.00 Landing the silver darlings: herring fisheries and the landscape of coastal Northumberland. Dr David Petts, Durham University

16.30 Seaton Delaval Hall and the development of a maritime cultural landscape. Dr Damian Robinson, Oxford Centre for Maritime Archaeology

17.00 Day 1 closing remarks by conference chair Christopher Dobbs, NAS Vice-President

17.30 End of Proceedings / Clear Building

18.00 Join us for drinks at the Royal Maritime Club, Queen Street

19.00 DINNER at the Royal Maritime Club, Queen Street

21.00 SKITTLES at the Royal Maritime Club, Queen Street

NAS and SPMA Conference 2015

Day 2 - 22nd November 2015

Venue: Portland Building, University of Portsmouth, Portsmouth, PO1 3AH

08.30 DOORS OPEN / TEA & COFFEE

09.00 Opening remarks by Day 2 conference chair, Harold Mytum, SPMA President

09.10 Revisiting Batavia: Recent excavations in the Abrolhos Island, Western Australia. Alistair Paterson, University of Western Australia and Corioli Souter, Western Australian Museum

09.40 Cargo, Crew and Pottery from Shipwrecks. Duncan Brown, Historic England

10.05 The Relics of War: Stories from beneath the waves of Scapa Flow, Orkney. Dr Annalisa Christie & Mark Littlewood, ORCA Marine Archaeology Institute, Orkney College University of Highlands and Islands

10.30 BREAK / TEA & COFFEE

11.00 The Emanuel Point Shipwrecks: Updates from the Field and Archives, Community Outreach, and Public Engagement. Dr Della A Scott-Ireton (University of Florida) and Dr John Bratton (University of West Florida)

11.50 VOC-ship Amsterdam 1749. Maritime archaeology and the trade and production of 18th-century Amsterdam. Prof Jerzy Gawronski, University of Amsterdam

12.30 LUNCH / TEA & COFFEE / POSTER PRESENTATIONS IN THE ATRIUM

14.00 Eating, smoking and gambling at sea: an assemblage of finds from the Grand Harbour, Malta. Russell Palmer, PhD candidate, University of Ghent

14.30 Portsmouth Historic Dockyard Hinterland Project: Interaction between the naval dockyard and the surrounding environs. Jonathan Hutchings, Museum of London Archaeology

15.00 Deptford Royal Dockyard: Archaeological Investigations at Convoys Wharf, Deptford, 2000-2012. Duncan Hawkins, CgMs Consulting

15.30 BREAK / TEA & COFFEE

16.00 Stinking foreshore to tree lined avenue: Investigating the impact and effects of the Thames Embankment construction on Victorian riverside communities in London. Hanna Steyne Chamberlin, PhD candidate, University of Manchester

16.30 Building Colonialism: Archaeology and Urban space in East Africa. Dr Daniel Rhodes, National Trust for Scotland

17.00 Day 2 closing remarks by conference chair, Harold Mytum, SPMA President

17.30 Raffle / End of Proceedings / NAS Conference 2016 announcement / Clear Building